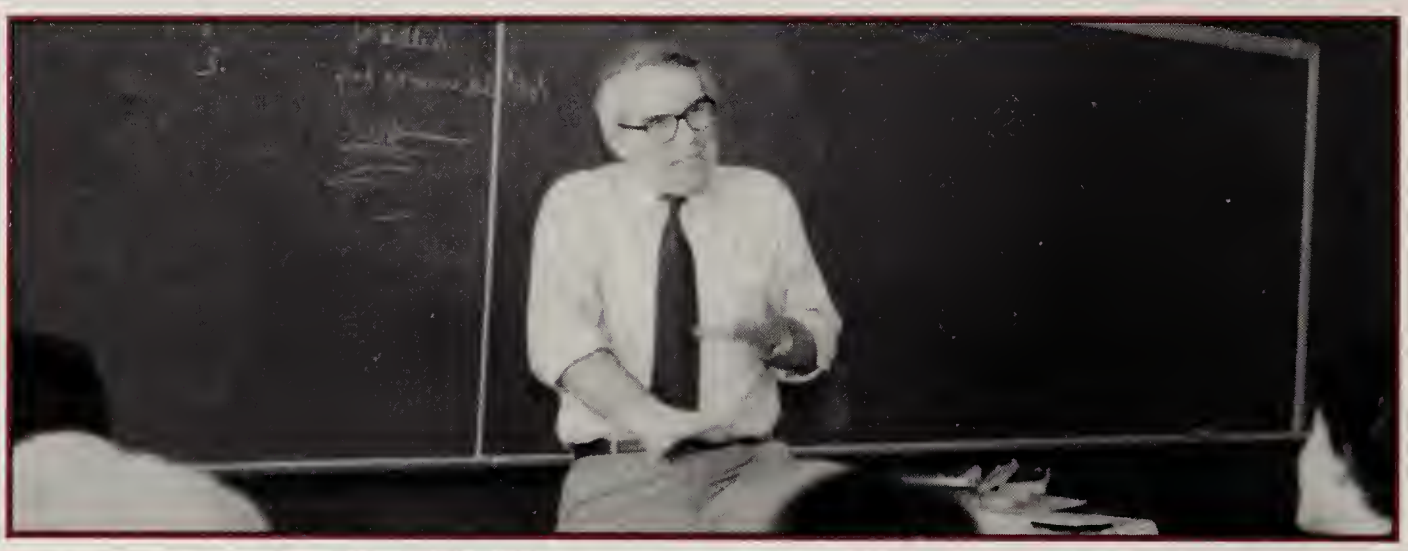
Wally Beevers is a man of many faces—he is an English teacher, a film critic, a counselor, an editor, a secretary, a gourmet chef, a politician, and a confidant . . . just to name a few! His dedicated service to the students of Weston High is a mere testimony of the magnanimous nature of this one man.
Mr. Beevers integrated care, comfort and curiosity into the teaching practices that caused every freshman in English 9 to fall in love with the eloquence of the written word.

Dedication

Thank You Mr. Beevers for being a wonderful friend and teacher.



HIGH ON LIFE: True to form, Mr. Beevers uses his enthusiastic and upbeat nature to enhance his lessons.

1973 — 2000

PILE 'EM ON IN: Mr. Beevers actively enjoys a strawberry sundae at a school function.

HAPPY-GO-LUCKY: For 27 years Mr. Beevers has graced the halls of Weston High with his perpetual smile.

WHO IS IT? There is never a dull moment in the life of Mr. Wally Beevers. He has always been around to talk to.

His loyalty to the Student Council proved to amplify the voices of each represented member of the student body

Mr. Beevers

Mr. Beever's presence at almost every school function, be it plays, dances, games, or bar-b-que's, displayed an allegiance to students that went way below the surface of the classroom. Mr. Beevers is a man of truth and true concern. His ready advice, reassuring smile and vivacious spirit—the everyday amenities that provided hope for an otherwise discouraged student—will always remain in the soul of Weston High. He is deeply appreciated for his love and commitment, and he will be a missed, yet not forgotten, part of Weston High School.
We love you, Mr. Beevers!

All Dedication Text Written by Miranda Craigwell

THE MANY FACES OF MR. BEEVERS: Teacher, punk rocker, friend, and chef, Mr. Beevers has left his mark on everything at Weston High School.

Doesn't know if he's up or down.

Growing

I'm leaving now to slay
the foe.
Fight the battles high
and low.
I'm leaving, now hear
me go!
Please wish me luck today.
I've grown my wings,
I want to fly,
Seize my victories where they lie.
I'm going now, but please
don't cry–
Just let me find my way.

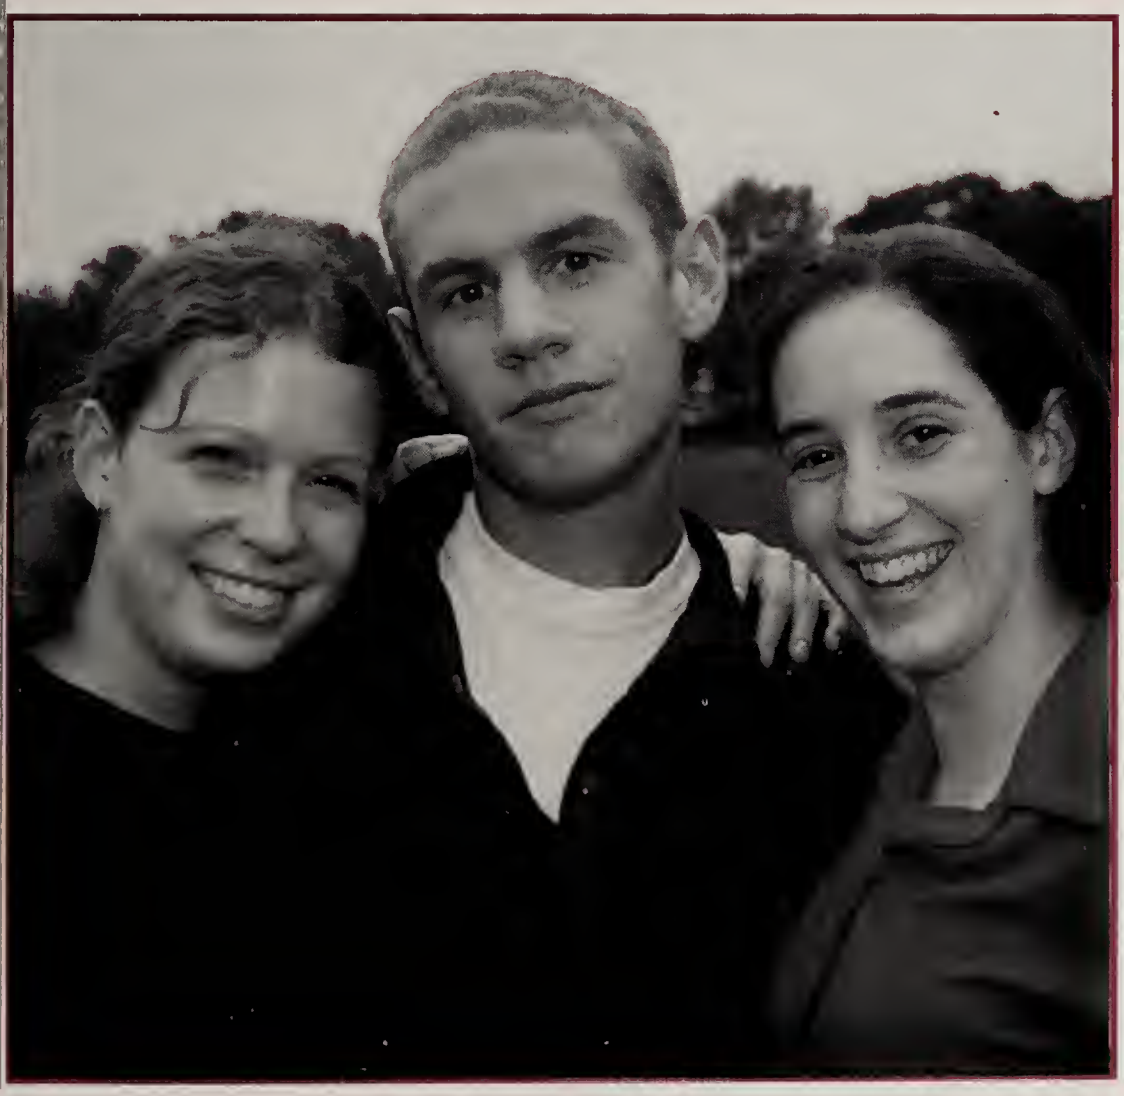
SUDBURY ROAD: Lindsay Miller, Evan Zacharias, and Elizabeth Reynolds-Lupo have been neighbors for as long as they can remember.

Q&A What Is Your Favorite Thing About Weston High School?

Zach Brainard
"I like knowing that sports teams from all other high schools fear competing with Weston."

Abby Davidson
"I like how there are not many people, so you get a chance to know every-one"



Jason Semine
"I think it's really cool how almost every-one in the school gets alongs really well."

SENIORS:

Whether it be playing in the leaves or doing nothing at all, Seniors always have fun.

2000 STYLE: Christie Langenberg, Joelle Lurie, Annie Erdekian, and Katie Nicholson show off their kindergarten t-shirt.

SOUTH SIDE: All the seniors who reside on the south side of town proudly represent their territory.

COUNTDOWN: Carla Racioppi and Jasmin Fine celebrate the end of another school day.

STRONG LIKE BULL: Derek Taff supports a tower of friends while Carla Racioppi and Mike Archambault admire his strength.

CLOSE FRIENDS: Andy Obusek and Jon Salame take a well deserved break from classes to capture their friendship on film.

SUPPORTING EACH OTHER: These seniors have always been there to help each other through the good times and the bad.

SENIORS

FUTURE WILDCATS

Members of the class of 2000 have always been active participants in Weston sports. Many of them started out as members of the town soccer team or baseball team.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

CLOSE UP

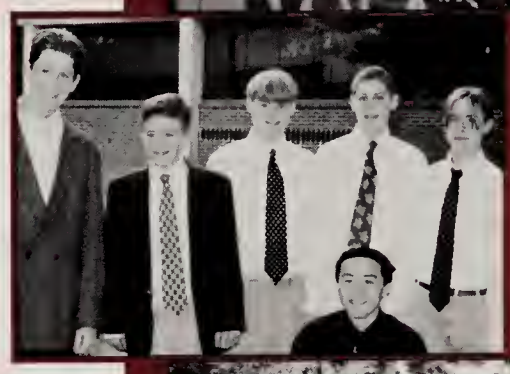
In 1998, 24 members of the class of 2000 went on the annual Close Up trip to Washington, D.C. The trip was a blast and all the students learned a lot about the United States government and also a lot about each other. Most seniors will agree that it was a wonderful bonding experience. It is not often that one gets the chance to travel to such a grand city with many of his or her closest friends.

2000 Activities

Car Wash

Every year the sophomore class holds a car wash to raise money for class activiites such as field trips, the junior prom, and the class gift. Like all events hosted by the class of 2000 the car wash was very successful and raised a lot of money. Everyone who participated had some good, clean fun while they made the cars of Weston shine.

Eighth Grade Semi-Formal Dance



For middle-schoolers, the eighth grade semi-formal is the equivalent of the senior prom (minus the stress of finding a date). Both boys and girls of the class of 2000 went all out for this event, and thanks to the class mothers, the dance was a night never to be forgotten.

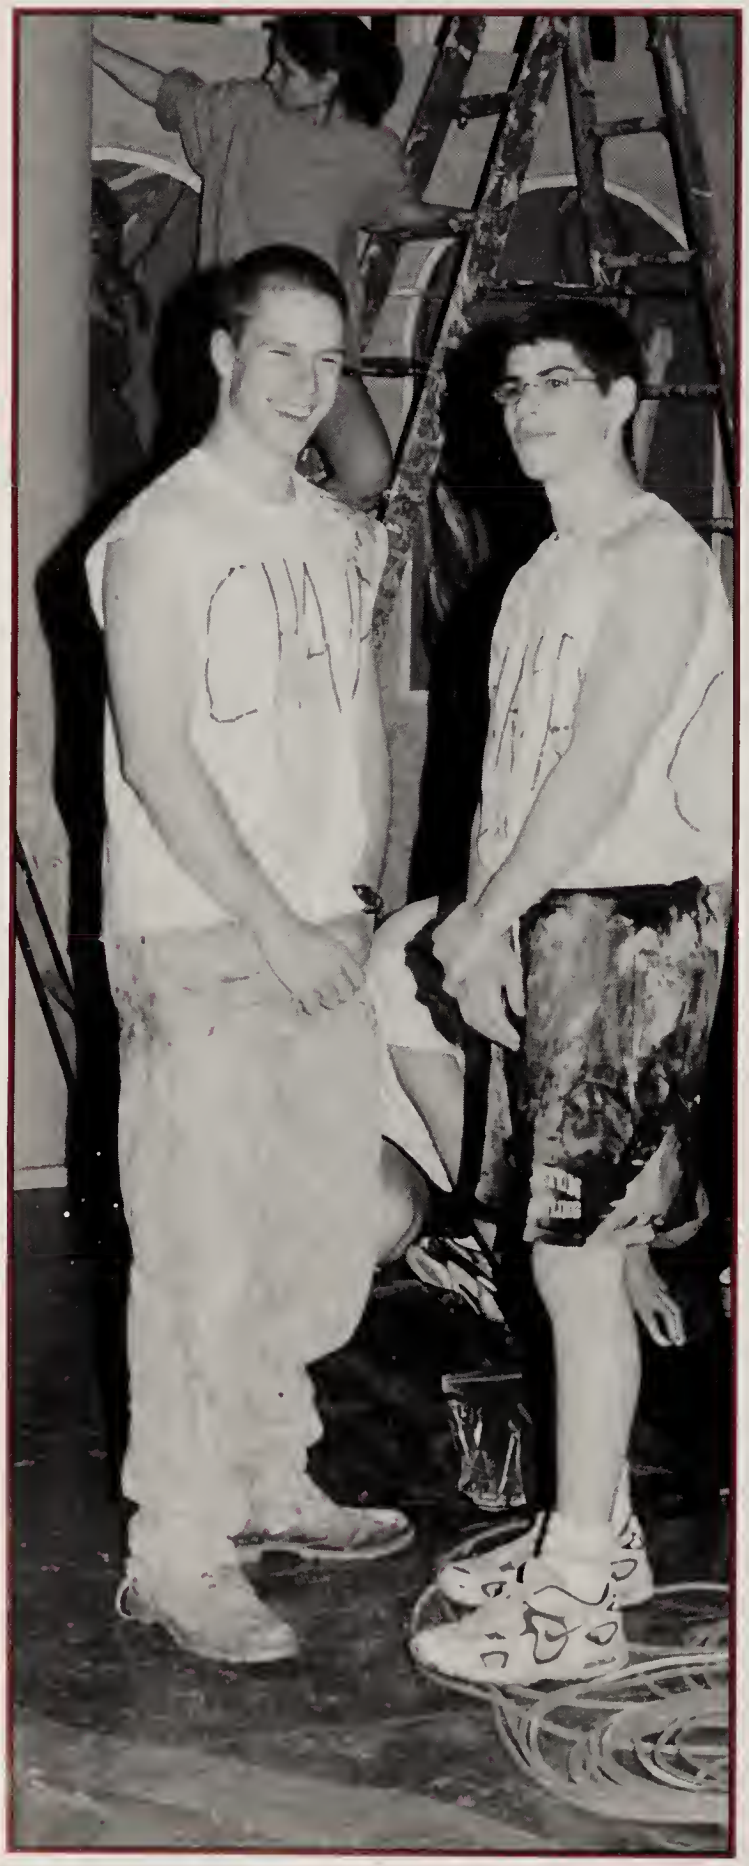
JUNIOR PROM

Construction: 2000 Memories to Build



WHO'S THE BOSS? Co-Chairs of construction Andy Obusek and Doug Haber oversee the work of their classmates.

BREAK TIME: Prom co-chair Joelle Lurie and classmate Austin Allain have a well deserved snack.

NOT FINISHED YET: Gwen Nolan, Amy Kim, Chris Wai, Nathan Ackerman, Derek Taff, and Jonathan Bassett all worked hard to set the stage for an awesome prom.

MAN WITH A PLAN: Prom co-chair Chris Wai is busy turning town hall into Old World Venice.

PRETTY IN PAINT: Prom co-chair Joelle Lurie and construction co-chair Doug Haber look like they both lost in the paint fight.

JUNIOR PROM

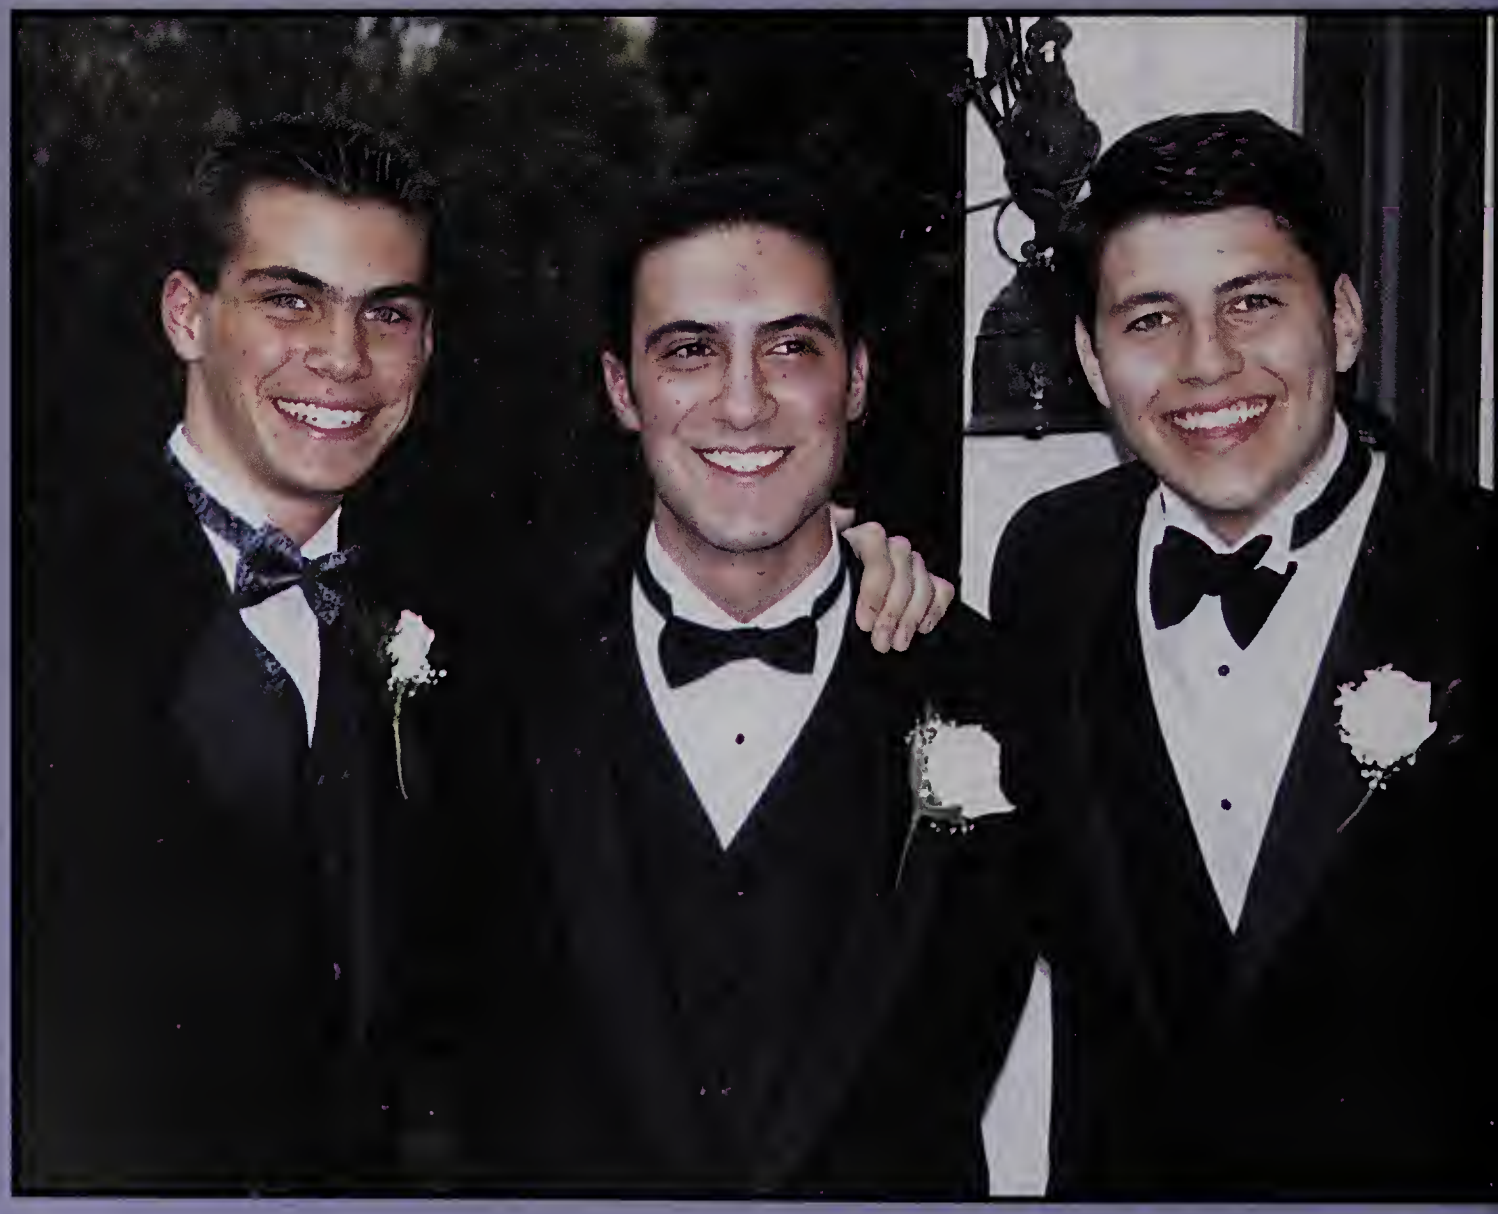
OLD WORLD VENICE . . . . . 2000 STYLE

ALL DRESSED UP: (and a great place to go) Elizabeth Arkema and Kate Flaherty look glamorous for the prom.

Annie Erdekian, Brad Callow, and Steph Marvel-Sweetser, take time out from jamming on the dance floor.

RESTING UP: Hayward Follansbee and Danny McShane relax before the big event.

A STYLISH TRIO: Nathan Ackerman, Jonathan Bassett, and Derek Taff will surely impress their dates.



ELEGANCE: These prom goers pose for many cameras before setting off into the night,

SETTING THE SCENE: Many members of the class of 2000 worked very hard to create this stunning background.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER: Kati Fulchino, Christie Langenberg, and Chris Wai are having the time of their lives.

ROYALTY: Having worked very hard on putting togther the prom, Taryn Schlowsky and Nick Powley are right fully crowned Queen and King.

LOOKING GREAT: Mike Archambault and Kati Fulchino show off their wonderful outfits.

THE ROARING 20s

AUCTION '99

GONE SAILING: Xandra Benjamin and Derek Taff try to prompt bids on a nautical item.

REGISTRATION: Louisa Mullin and Heather MacLeod check in all the guests.

FLAPPER OR STUDENT: Ashley St. Mary decorates the caf as well as she decorated herself.

ANYTHING FOR A BUCK: These boys sell their services to benefit the class.

GETTING DOWN: A Choreographed "flapper" dance really added that 20's flavor to the 1999 junior class auction.

IN STYLE: Peri West, Jonahtan Bassett, Derek Taff, and Andy Gilman support the theme with their creative costumes.

GOING ONCE, GOING TWICE, ...SOLD! Andy Gilman and Annie Erdekian were two of the evenings impressive autioneers.

OOOH LA LA: Nathan Ackerman advertises an exotic getaway by becoming a belly dancer.

DANCE FEVER: Lauren Jackson dances the night away in true 1920's style.

MACHO MACHO MAN: Brad Callow struts his stuff all in the name of fun.

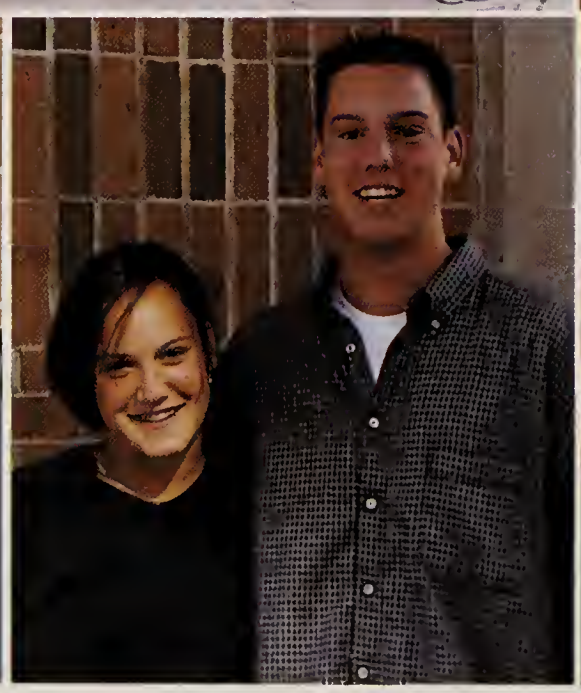
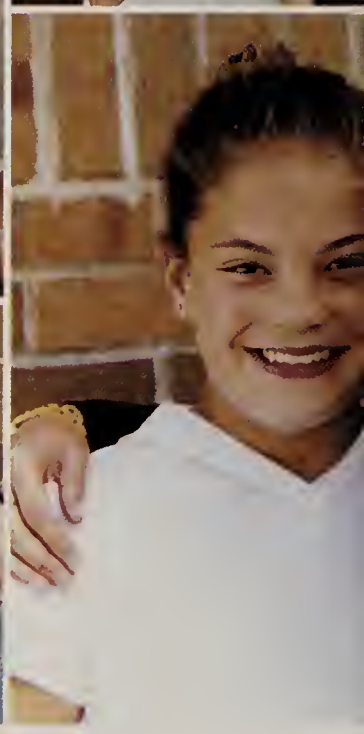
LIFER: a person who has been in the Weston school system since kindergarten.





Genevieve Abraham

" Being a Lifer has allowed me to get to know the people in my class very well. I'm not sure if this is good or bad."

Jonathan Bassett

" The one class that has really prepared me for the life that lies ahead was kinder-garten - block building."

Annie Erdekian

"Being a lifer has taught me that I do not have to travel too far from home to have a good time with my friends."

INTERESTING FACT: Over half the members of the class of 2000 are lifers.

SENIORS:

From John Proctor field to the Water Country, seniors can always be seen having fun.

BALD EAGLES: Following tradition, these members of the football team shaved their heads before the 1998 division six superbowl.

KICKS: The senior members of the boys soccer team join together to freeze this moment in time.

SUMMER FUN: Laura Mooney, Abby Davidson, Jaime Dolphin, and Jasmin Fine enjoy a day at Water Country.

BUDDIES: Harold Birnbaum and Eli Mather have been friends since childhood.

LAZY DAYS: Lauren Jackson relaxes with the support of friends Chris Stratton, Austin Allain, Matt Wolf, and Andrew Wernick.

INSEPERABLE: Joelle Lurie, Jessica Lee, Jason Semine, Doug Haber, Brad Callow, Gwen Nolan, Chris Wai, and Christie Langenberg will always share close friendships with each other.

BRAD'S BASEMENT: Almost since the beginning of time people have been chilling in Brad Callow's basement. Mike Archambault, Andy Obusek, Elizabeth Arkema, and Doug Haber have done it since middle school.

2000's YOUNGER DAYS

Many members of the class of 2000 have been friends since the first grade. They have always known how to show support for their class.

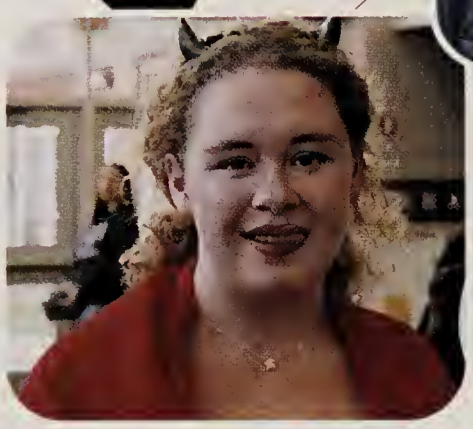
Halloween 1999

First Annual Wild-Catfight

ZORRO: Becky Friedman

CAT: Ashley St. Mary

SHE-DEVIL: Pauline Vangoozen



This year's Halloween was one for the books. WHS saw many new and original costumes, and started a new tradition as well. . . .

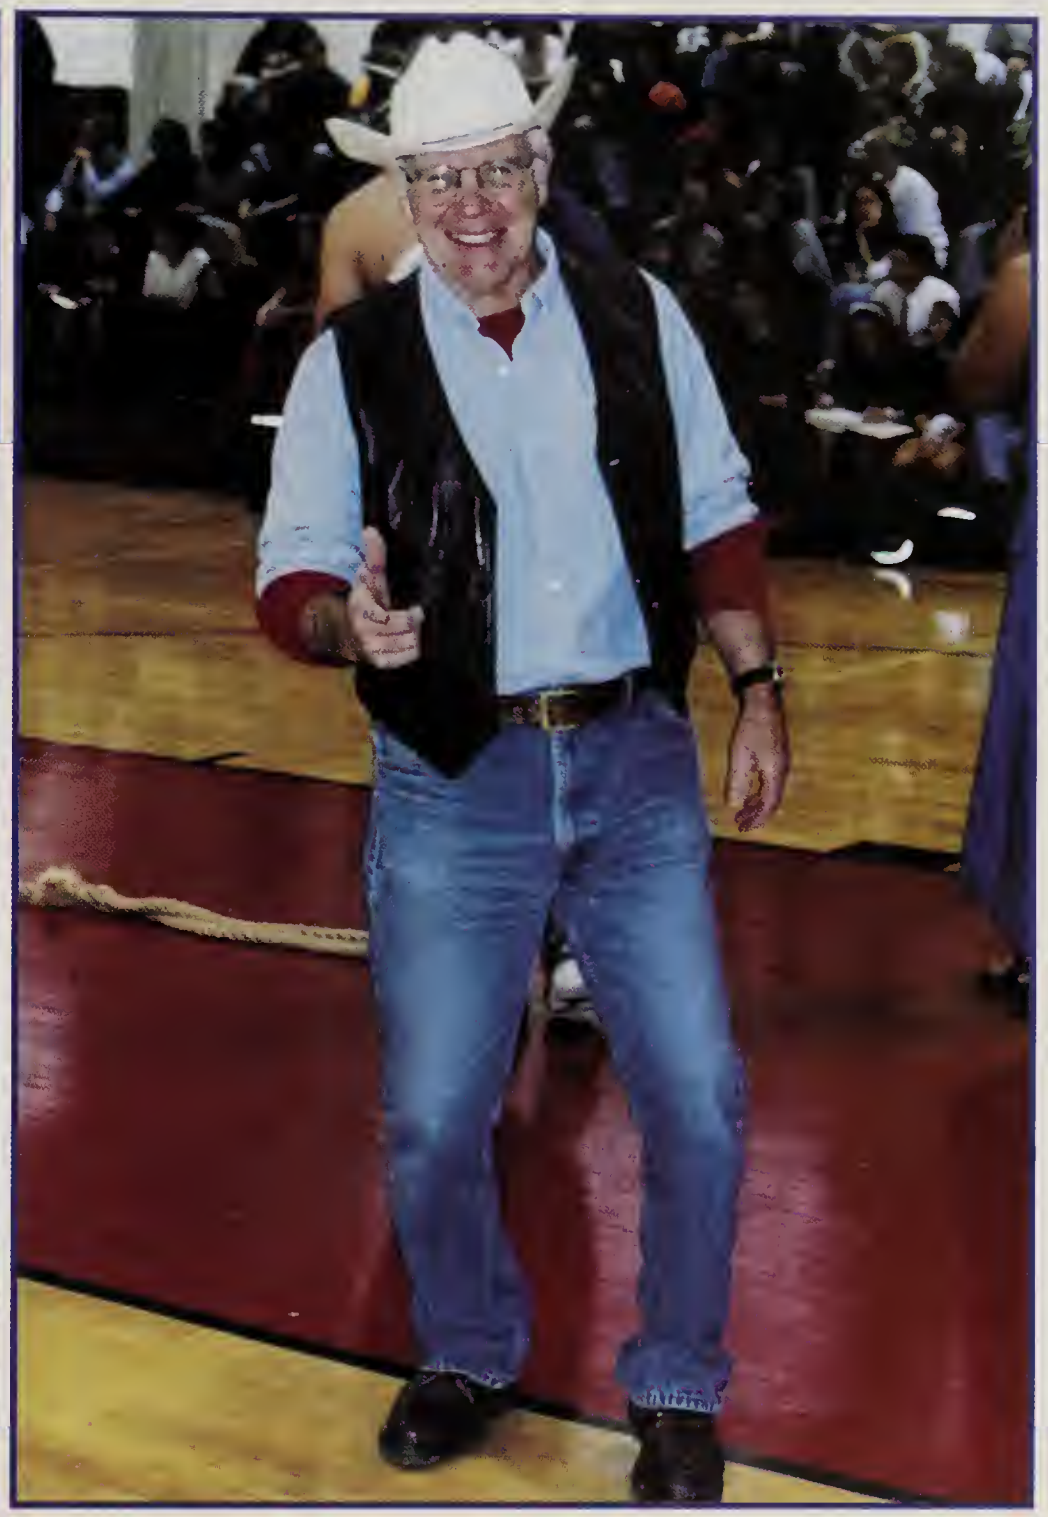
WE'RE NOT IN KANSAS ANYMORE: Tommy Dickie, Mrs.Marsh, Jon Salame, and Evan Zacharias followed the yellow brick road all the way to WHS.

ORIGINALITY: Francis Karasch, Mike Miller, Chris Heleis, and Brian Kim make quite a unique group.

A CLOWN TURNED EVIL, OR ISIT SELF DEFENSE? George Lee and Nick Botchan battle it out in the hallway.

ROCKY, THE GIRLS SOCCER VERSION: These lady Wildcats are scheming to crush field hockey.

WHAT AN ODD PAIR: Chef Desauliners and Queen Viking Prindle.



This was sure to be a tug-of-war for the ages, pitting the underrated girl's soccer team against the field hockey team. Once the opening whistle was blown, the soccer team got off to quick start, and ran away with the victory. After a cry of foul by the field hockey team, the teams agreed to a rematch. As the girl's soccer team pulled away with a second victory, they exploded in victory, having won the hearts of Weston High. The two teams put aside their hard feelings as they joined together to thank the Co-presidents by rubbing frosted donuts in their faces.

—Jason Semine

BOO!

CLASS MOTHERS: Mrs. Callow, Mrs. Schlowsky, and Mrs. Haber have been a blessing to the class of 2000.

VACATION TIME. Mrs. Callow is spending some quiet time in a wonderful vacation spot.

SQUEAKY CLEAN: Class advisor Mrs. Prindle helps out at the sophomore car wash. She has been a great role model for the class over the past four years.

ASSISTANCE: Class advisors Mrs. Prindle and Mr. Currie adjust the music at the junior auction. They are always around to lend a helping hand.

Class of 2000

Advisors

LEADERS: Mrs. Prindle and Mr. Currie have worked closely with class council members Gwen Nolan, Mike Bruno, Jessica Lee, Chris Wai, and Mike Archambault to make this a spectacular year.

HELPERS: Mr. Currie, Mrs. Schlowsky and Mrs. Prindle help the class even more by bidding on items at the junior auction.

PERSONAL CHEERLEADERS: All of the class mothers have always been here to support us when it was our time to shine.

LUNCH BREAK: Rehana Ashraf, Derek Taff, Louisa Mullin, Christina Mitsakos, Xandra Benjamin, and Kyle Spellman take a midday snack.

HOW SWEET: Christopher Reese gives a friendly gesture towards good friend Ross Wrangham.

AWWW: Doug Haber and Derek Taff await specially picked leaves by Rehana Ashraf and Christina Mitsakos

ALLSTARS: Back in the good old days- this little league baseball team smiles for their team picture.

CHILDHOOD

COWABUNGA! Joey Cronin and Tommy Dickie visit their good friend Leonardo, the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle.

ORAGAMI: Yes, we are wearing paper hats. It was third grade, cut us some slack.

SUNSET ROAD: Life-long neighbors Xandra Benjamin and Louisa Mullin have been playing together since nursury school.

WHAT'S GOING ON HERE? Lauren Jackson and Angela McMahon leave it all up to the imagination.

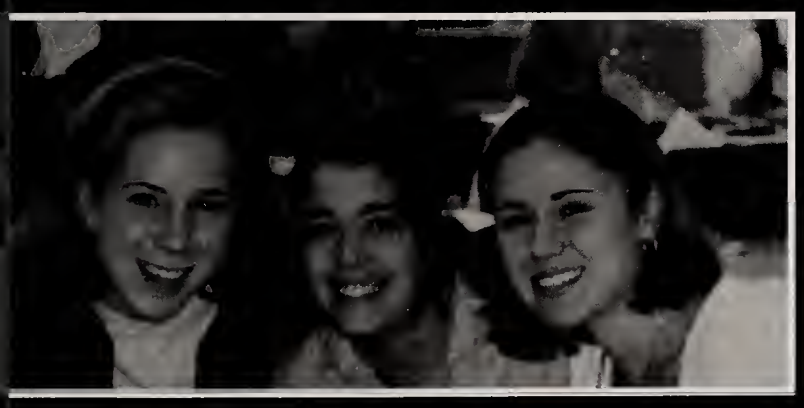
CUB SCOUTS: These future model citizens prepare themselves to save the world.

R&R: Dan Martin, Joelle Lurie, Gwen Nolan, and friend take it easy on a sunny afternoon.

STUDLY: Kyle Spellman, Marc Ferrelli, and John Viola get psyched for the eighth grade semi-formal.

The four years in which the Class of 2000 has reigned, has come to an end. As we move forward we look behind us and see the many faces of teachers, family, and friends that we have come to know and love in our years at Weston High School. It is from these individuals that we have gained the wisdom that will help us become great leaders of the 21st century.

LOOKING BACK AT 2000'S SENIORS



We have laughed, cried, and stood strong as a whole. As we move forward into our future, we can't help but look back and remember the great memories we have shared together.

—Chris Wai & Carla Racioppi

What is in your power to do is in your power not to do.
I'd like to thank my family for supporting me through all these years. My parents for keeping me in check and making me realize the importance of doing well in school as well as supporting me in the moments that I needed them the most. I'd also like to thank my three sisters for providing me with wisdom that I wouldn't have obtained without them. I love you all, you're the best. I'd also like to wish my peers and friends good luck in their future endevors: casely, alvin, david, maranda, tricia, shameka, kristy, sonephet, eric, khamal, and arif.

He who asks a question is a fool for five minutes; he who does not ask a question remains a fool forever. —Chinese Proverb

"Who are you?" said the caterpillar. Alice replied rather shyly, "I—I hardly know, sir, just at the present—at least I knew who I was when I got up this morning, but I must have changed several times since then." —Alice in Wonderland

Thank you to all those who have been kind and true, who have helped me to be brave, who have encouraged me to take risks and question the world around me, and who have taken the time to help me ask myself, "Who am I?"

Thank you to all those people who have been friends during my journey through Weston schools. You are what made the experience fun and worthwhile.

Thank you to all my teachers and coaches. You have given me tools with which to go forward in life. Many of you are included in the above statement as well.

Love to my family. Mom, Dad, Andy, Glum, Mug. Whatever I do or become it will always be with the love and help you have given me.

The greatest strength is gentleness.

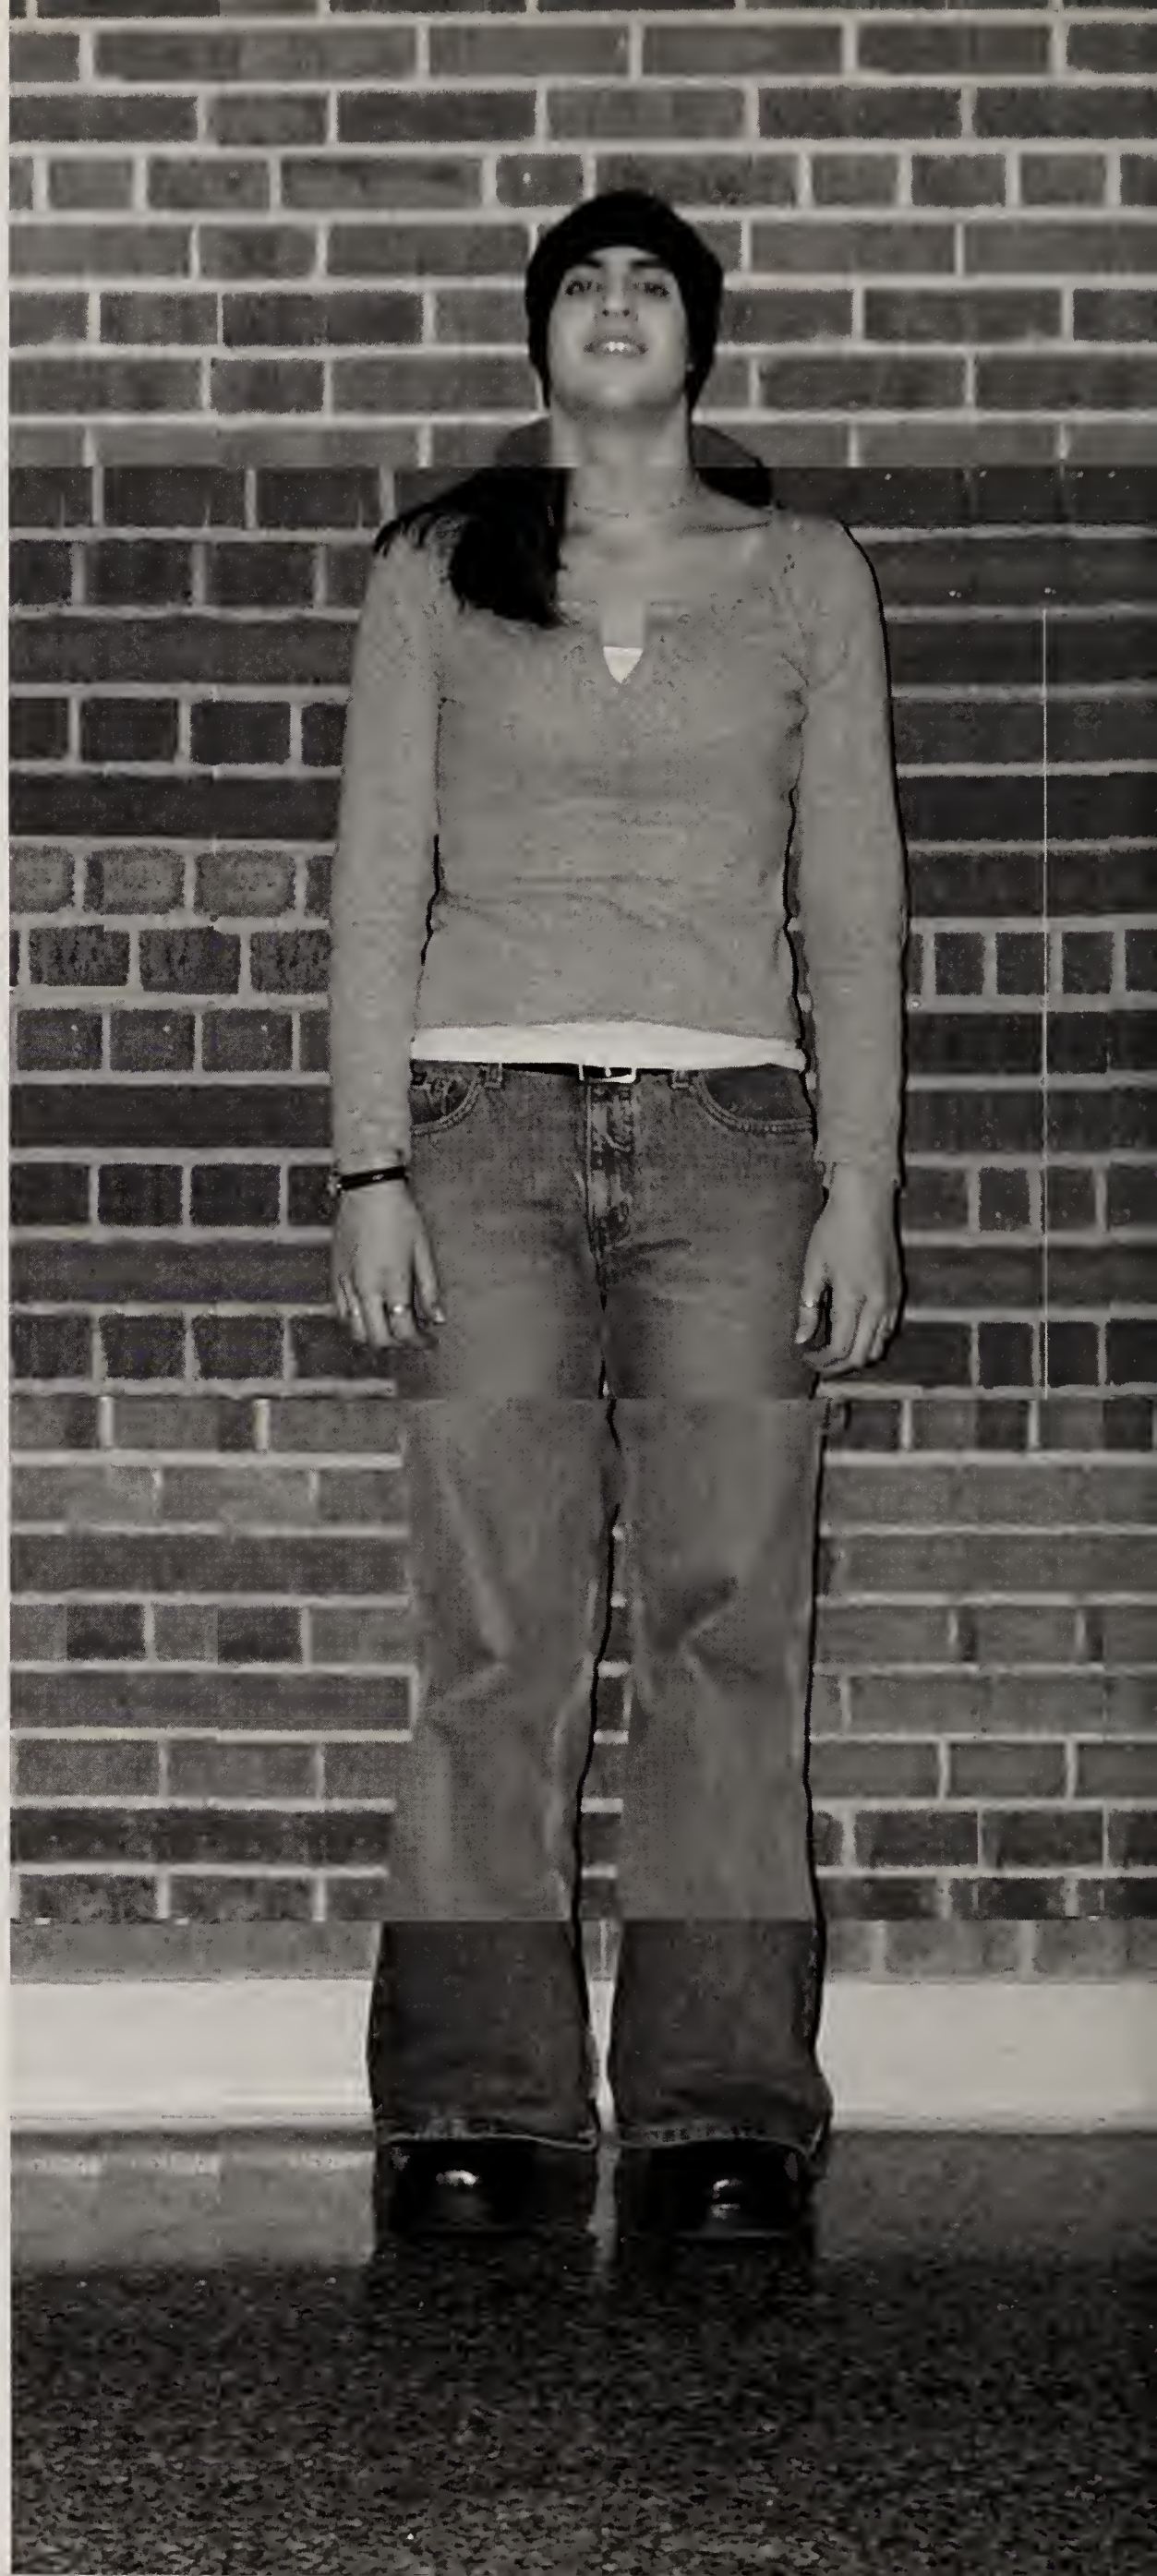
High school is the time in which we all grow and change into the adults we will be in the years to come. During this time, we will all face barriers, some overwhelming and some minute. However, it is not the size of the wall that matters, but the destruction of those obstacles that determines our inner strength and ambition.



2000 WAYS TO BE UNIQUE

JUNIORS. Jesse Berkey, Ashley Becker, Ani Bagdasarian, and Sean Kellaher

SOPHOMORES. Julie MCCarthy, Kristen Kelly, Emily Doherty, Sam Treadway, and Josh Kutticherry

FRESHMEN. Jennifer St. Mary, Matt Hutner, David Warren

FACULTY. Mr. Goldberg, Mr. Beevers; Mr. Desimone, Mr. Fuller, Ms. Raymond

The formative years as underclassmen have the potential to be some of the best in a young adult's life. Through these precious years, it is our job to open our eyes and push ourselves beyond our limits.

- Hannah Munger & Teresa Tao

Class of 2001

This year the Junior class was busy planning the auction, prom, annual end of the year cruise and several field trips and community service events. Our auction was a huge success, and more importantly, an enjoyable evening for all. The students, as well as everyone else who attended, had a wonderful time. The class took several field trips including one to Pats Peak Mountain, for a day of mountain fun in January. In February, they furthered their relationship with the Jackson Mann school by taking the kids to the Science Museum. Prom had a great turnout, and was fun for everyone.

Overall, the year was exciting, enjoyable and a great success for all in the class. Thank you to our class advisors, and those who helped make it that way. The energy created this year will flow over to the next, as we roll into, and become the first class of the next millenium.

CLASS OF 2002 OFFICERS. Vice President Hannah Munger, President Greg Sanzone, SAC Rep Duncan Carvey, Secretary Moses Sandrof, Treasurer Stuart Watson, Advisors and Parents Mrs. Kuhr, Mr. Mathers and Ms. Collins

Wild, crazy, out-of-this world: all are terms describing this year. Fueled by innovative, original ideas brought to the table by class officers and their classmates, this year is surely to have offered something enjoyable to everybody.

With a variety of community service activities, including our annual Special Needs Basketball Tournament; fun class trips; creative spins on traditional Sophmore events like the semi-formal and car wash, it's no doubt we all had reason to party like it was 1999! Over the course of the year, events such as the sophomore/junior holiday party and catering for graduation have and will make the year even more enjoyable and memorable.

Trailblazing new activities with hopes of continuity, for example among others, the Haunted House, the Class of 2002 will assuredly bring many fun traditions to WHS. With two more years of high school to go, our class is excited and anticipating what other creative and productive ideas and projects we can take part in. REPRESENT THE '02!!

This year was filled with many enriching and unique experiences. The events this year have resulted in a more unified and close-knit grade. As freshmen it's particularly important to stick together and become familiar with our new surroundings. Early in the school year we had our freshman potluck dinner which had a wonderful attendence of over ninety people. This event allowed parents and students to get together and talk about the year and things to come. Another event that was a huge success was the Winter holiday dance. Our class was the second freshman class to be given a winter dance of their own. The majority of the grade came and everyone enjoyed it. The first freshman fund raiser was a bake sale during the winter play and we raised over $600. These events brightened our first year at WHS and we look forward to even more fun next year.

For as long as anyone can remember, Weston sports teams have dominated the Dual County League as well as the state. The 1999-2000 teams were no exception. From the sixth consecutive Thanksgiving Day win over Wayland football to boys' swimming's state championship, Weston athletes have proven once again that they are the

CROSS COUNTRY

A Tale of Two Teams

The 1999 girls cross country season can be summed up in one phrase: it's quality, not quantity, that matters. Although there were only eight girls on the team, one of the smallest in Weston's history, the girls finished the season with a record of 5 wins and 3 losses in the Dual County League. The heart and determination of this small team, assisted by many outstanding performances at the Eastern Massachusetts State Class Meet, lead to its second consecutive qualification for the All-State meet in Northfield.

Sophomore Lisetta Shah, as well as juniors Jenny Wong and Torrey Kulow, had outstanding individual races at the class meet in Franklin Park, where Kulow was named a DCL All-Star. At the All-State meet, Jordan MacClary continued her phenomenal season with a sixth place finish, earning her All-Schoolastic recognition.

All members of the girls cross country team will be returning for the 2000 season. They look foward to a bright season next year.

—Jordan MacClary 2001

After a shaky 3-5 start, the boys cross country team didn't seem to be in optimum condition. However, coaches Monz and Maguire turned the team around and deftly guided the boys to the State meet, a feat the team has accomplished every season for the past ten years.

Early prognostications were that the Wildcats would be hard up to make the Big Dance. Against all odds, led by Max Riffin's fifth place finish, the team reeled in an astonishing second place finish at the Eastern Massachusetts Class Meet. Juniors Henry Cipolla and George Lee, along with seniors Evan Zacharias and Lawrence Hutcheson, made huge contributions in the biggest race of the year. However, junior Adam Kraft was Weston's hero of the day when he stepped his performance up to the next level to give the Wildcats a state meet birth.

This close-knit team has laid down the foundation for a millenium of success.

—Max Riffin 2000

Junior Jordan MacClary (above) and Senior Max Riffin (below) led their teams to spectacular finishes in their respective state meets. Along the way, these team leaders won their share of individual honors.

THE GIRLS. Tiffany Chan, Jordan MacClary, Jenny Durkin, Jenny Wong, Torrey Kulow, Elizabeth Reynolds-Loo and Lisetta Shah came together this year and produced results that knocked everyone's socks off.

THE GUYS. Lawry Hutcheson, George Lee, Evan Zacharias, Adam Kraft, Max Riffin, Henry Cipolla, Nathan Landy, and George Abraham formed the core of the boys cross country team this year. They defied the odds and exceeded everyone's expectations.

FIELD HOCKEY

No "I" in "Team"

New shirts, new pads, new coaches, new players, new team. All new and untested. But a week and a half into the season, one thing was clear: this was not a team led by individuals. What was driving us was not a chance for a trophy, but the opportunity to play another 60 minutes. It's rare to find a team this unselfish. Every success and failure was equally shared among the 17 players on and off of the field.

As the season progressed, we slowly gained confidence and by the postseason, we were ready for "the big dance." We came out with our guns blazing against third-seeded Bishop Fenwick and ended up with a 2-1 upset victory. We continued on another two rounds, losing to Waltham in the Div. I North Semifinals.

Captains Jessica Lee, Gwen Nolan, and Katie Nicholson led the team through the season. Multiple injuries could not hold this team back. Key contributors included juniors Teresa Tao and Caroline Pierson and senior Jaime Dolphin, all of whom were nominated DCL All-Stars along with Jessica Lee and Gwen Nolan. Sophomore Sabrina Lazzari was ranked second in scoring in the DCL. We showed that we could hold our own within the DCL and Division 1. To Weston Field Hockey: Keep the tradition alive.

FOOTBALL

High Hopes, Hard Hits

As the defending Superbowl champions, the football team had high hopes coming into the 1999 season. This season was the final triumph in the last year for a group of outstanding seniors and a very special head coach, Bob Desaulniers. The Wildcats' high powered offense featured a quartet of talented senior running backs in Matt Wolf, Chris Stratton, David Carpio and John Viola. This backfield, along with junior quarterback Aaron Berkey had the luxury of outstanding offensive line play all season long from seniors John Selame, Bobby Desaulniers, Mike Bruneau, Jason Semine and Zach Brainard. The defense was also a force, led by many of the same linemen and backs as well as linebacker Andrew Wernick and safety Brady Lauback.

The season started well as the team went 6-1 in the first seven games. This included the team's best all around performance of the season against Hanover when David Carpio scored four touchdowns to lead the Cats to victory and Coach Desaulniers' 100th career win. However in the weeks to follow the team was devastated by injury and a heartbreaking three game losing streak ending hopes of a return to the Super Bowl. The Wildcats came together for one final battle in the rain and mud on Thanksgiving day. Only two of fifteen seniors were at full strength, but many played through tough injuries. All of the seniors played above and beyond expectations led by Chris Stratton who scored both Weston touchdowns. Younger players such as quarterback Jason Cort and running back Troy Diggs stepped up as well. Weston defeated Wayland 12-0 in what was truly the finest hour for this very special football team.

GOLF

New Beginnings

The golf team had a great season this year. With only Captain Derek Taff, Alan Lane, Charlie Sahlman, and Adam Wigetman returning to the top eight from last year's lineup, the team was very lucky to get four more great players to complement the veterans.

Sophomore Dan Gollinger and Freshmen Dave Warren, Keith Goodale, and Brett Yogel developed into key players. The last match of the season was a win against Wayland, which gave Weston a .750 win percentage in the division.

The team was also invited to attend the state tournament for the third time in its three-year history. They fell short of advancing by a few strokes, but Charlie Sahlman carried the Weston torch into the second round of individuals.

However, more importantly than all the wins, the team exhibited good spirit and camaraderie, developing into a fun and cohesive group by the end of the season. Good luck, Golf 2000!

BOYS SOCCER

Hanging Tough

Although they had lost 13 seniors to graduation, the 1999 soccer team started the season with high hopes. They knew it would be a tough as signment in the highly competitive D C L, home of three of the state's top twenty teams. But tri-captains Brad Callow, Doug Haber, and Wade Kirshy, along with six other seniors, were ready to lead the team to a winning season.

The Wildcats started off strong. Although they were very inexperienced, Weston beat tough teams such as Boston Latin, Bishop Connolly, and even arch-rival Wayland. After five games, their record was 3-1-1. Then Weston faced off against four of the best teams in the DCL: Lincoln-Sudbury, Bedford, Newton South, and Acton-Boxboro. Losses in these four games seemed to break the young team's confidence. Fortunately, the boys had already secured a position in the post-season due to their early sucess.

As tournament time rolled around, Weston prepared to face Bishop Fenwick in the first game. It was a tough game and the team played with all its heart. In the end, the Wildacats came up just short, losing 1-0.

Despite the team's record, five Wildcats were named DCL All-Stars. Brad Callow first-team honors, while Doug Haber, Wade Kirshy, Tim Horton, and Jay Fernandez were recognized as second team all-stars.

The soccer team worked hard all year. They qualified for the post-season tournament for only the second time in fourteen years. Each member of the team played a critical role both on and off the field. That is what made the 1999 season special for everyone involved.

GIRLS SOCCER

Never Say Die

Despite a rough start to the regular season, the Wildcats didn't stop believing. . . .

Although the team lost key members of last year's Division III State Championship team, the pressure to defend the title was still on. But this year's team knew they could rise to the challenge.

The team's first tournament game was a sweet victory against Wayland in overtime. High-flying on momentum, the team downed the first seed, Mt. Alvernia, in the next round. Neither Tyngsboro, nor injuries slowed the Wildcats as they earned a place in the North Sectional Semi-Finals. Power, determination, and strength then carried the team over Central Catholic in a breathtaking double over-time victory. However, Weston's run came to an end at the hands of Marian, who avenged tournament losses to Weston the past two years on the way to the 1999 title.

From a tough regular season to North Sectional Finalist honors, the Wildcats showed that never giving up was the only way to succeed.

LEADERSHIP. Lauren O'Rouke led the team as a strong captain and powerful force on defense this season.

"...the Wildcats showed that never giving up was the only way to succeed."

A Tall Task

Few people expected to see the heart, desire, and determination that the boys' basketball team proved this season. Our first game against Boston Latin ended in a Wildcat victory and quickly grabbed the town's attention. Several weeks later, we went on to finish in second place in an Ashland winter tournament. Unfortunately, our lack of experience was an obstacle that was extremely difficult to conquer. Only a small number of the varsity players had played with one another at the varsity level. With this in mind, the team did exceptionally well. Senior tri-captains Matt Wolf, Khamal Edison and Mike Archambault, along with senior Alvin Findlay, were key contributors to the team. Juniors Casey Gibbons, Peter Zotto, James Cobb, and sophomore Troy Diggs were also extremely instrumental. Gibbons and Wolf were both named DCL All-Stars. Overall, the season was filled with ups and downs, but we were able to prove ourselves as a relentlees, respectable team. Most importantly, everyone finished the season as a much stronger player. Next year's team will contain a large number of fantastic athletes. Another spectacular season can be expected from all the returning players. This year was a success within itself and it also served as a giant stepping stone for even greater success next year.

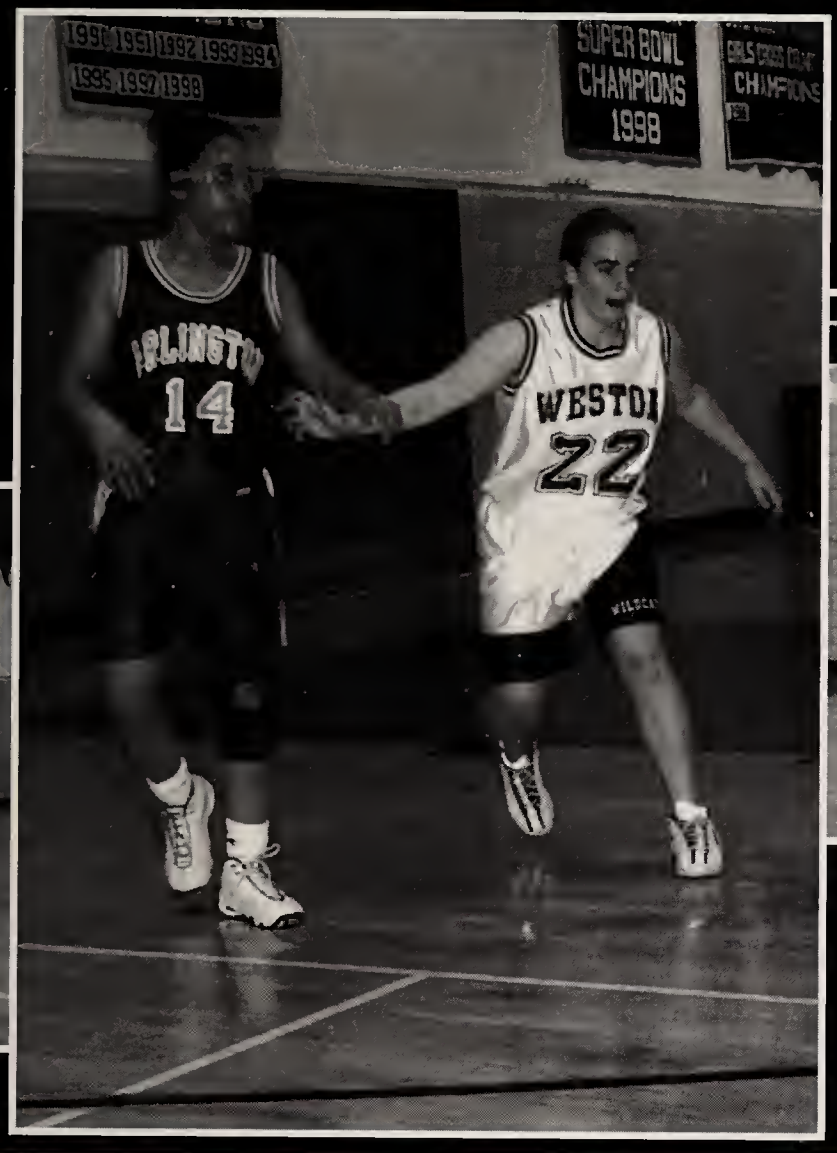
New Heights

The season began with a clean slate. Seven teammates had graduated, leaving many people doubting a comparable, or even a successful season for the Lady Cats' Hoops team.

However, our new squad began quelling those doubts right from the start. We ended December holding a record of 3-3, with two of those wins coming from defending our Watertown Tournament Championship. Within the first week of the new year, we qualified for the post season tourney, and proved that the strength of the Wildcats did not graduate with '99. Then the night of January 21st rolled around, and yet another milestone was reached. Senior captain Miranda Craigwell scored her 1000th point, and became the first girl in Weston history to do so. The game paused as she was showered with flowers and smothered in hugs, and resumed to upset rival Acton Boxboro.

Ending the regular season with the best-ever record of 12-8, and providing the most DCL All-Stars in Wildcat history, the team trekked to Concord to watch Craigwell, co-captain Angela McMahon and junior Jesse Berkey compete in their honorary game. Working hard together all season proved worthwhile as we closed in March after an exciting tournament.

-Caroline Pierson '01



READY POSITION. Junior Shooting Guard Jesse Berkey is keeping her eye on her opponent. If she doesn't get the steal here,it's only a matter of time before her next strike.

INDOOR TRACK

Runaway

The intense training that started in early December paid off for the girls' indoor track team: their 7-1 record earned them 2nd place in the DCL. The team was led by a strong group of seniors including tri-captains Kate Flaherty, Christie Langenberg, and Peri West, along with Taryn Schlowsky, Annie Erdekian, Genevieve Abraham, and Kati Fulchino. Key contributors also included juniors Jordan MacClary and Rachel Biondolillo.

The team demonstrated its strength by battling through numerous injuries throughout the season to eventually place third in the state. Flaherty and MacClary recorded first-place finishes at States in the 600 and 400, respectively. The 4x400 relay of Flaherty, MacClary, Viola, and Biondolillo also placed first.

- Peri West '00 and Christie Langenberg '00

The boys' indoor track team had an uncharacteristic 2-6 season. The chief problem was that the team had no more than eight runners at any meet. By the Class D meet, only four runners had made cuts. Seniors Brad Callow and Max Riffin, junior Henry Cipolla, and sophomore Logan Jones captured fourth place in the meet, a mere five points behind first-place Seekonk. In the DCL meet, Callow won the 1000, Riffin finished 2nd in the mile, Cipolla was right behind him in the same event, and Jones won the 600. Seniors Garrett Lee and Evan Zacharias filled out the boys' team. Overall, the Wildcats had perhaps the best core of talent in the DCL, but they simply could not match the depth of other teams. —Max Riffin '00

SMILE FOR THE CAMERA! Junior Henry Cipolla momentarily gives his attention to the photographer as he hurtles by. Thank you, Henry.

NOW YOU SEE HIM, SOON YOU WON'T. If that's not what Sophomore Logan Jones's opponents were thinking as they started with him, it is what they realized by this point in the race. Sure, it's a photograph, but you can still tell he's moving fast.

SWIMMING

A Banner Year

The '99-'00 swimming season was incredible. The captains of the team were Matt Barrison, Zach Brainard, and Nicole Wake. Both the boys' and the girls' teams were undefeated during the dual-meet season. The toughest meets were against A-B for the boys and L-S for the girls. Both the teams were also DCL and sectional champions. The boys finished first at the state meet, while the girls were runners-up to the perennial champion, Gardner. Both teams were perhaps the best to ever go through WHS. Many records were broken and there were several Boston Globe All-Scholastics. They included Caroline Curtis, Coutney Davies, Nzinga Davis, Patrick Dunn, Rosemary Flynn, Jason Korsmeyer, Niles Madison, Nicole Wake, and Sharon Warren. Thanks to Coach Foley, Coach Valle, and Coach Denehey for everything. We love you guys so much. You did a wonderful job this year. Everybody is to be congratulated for a great season!

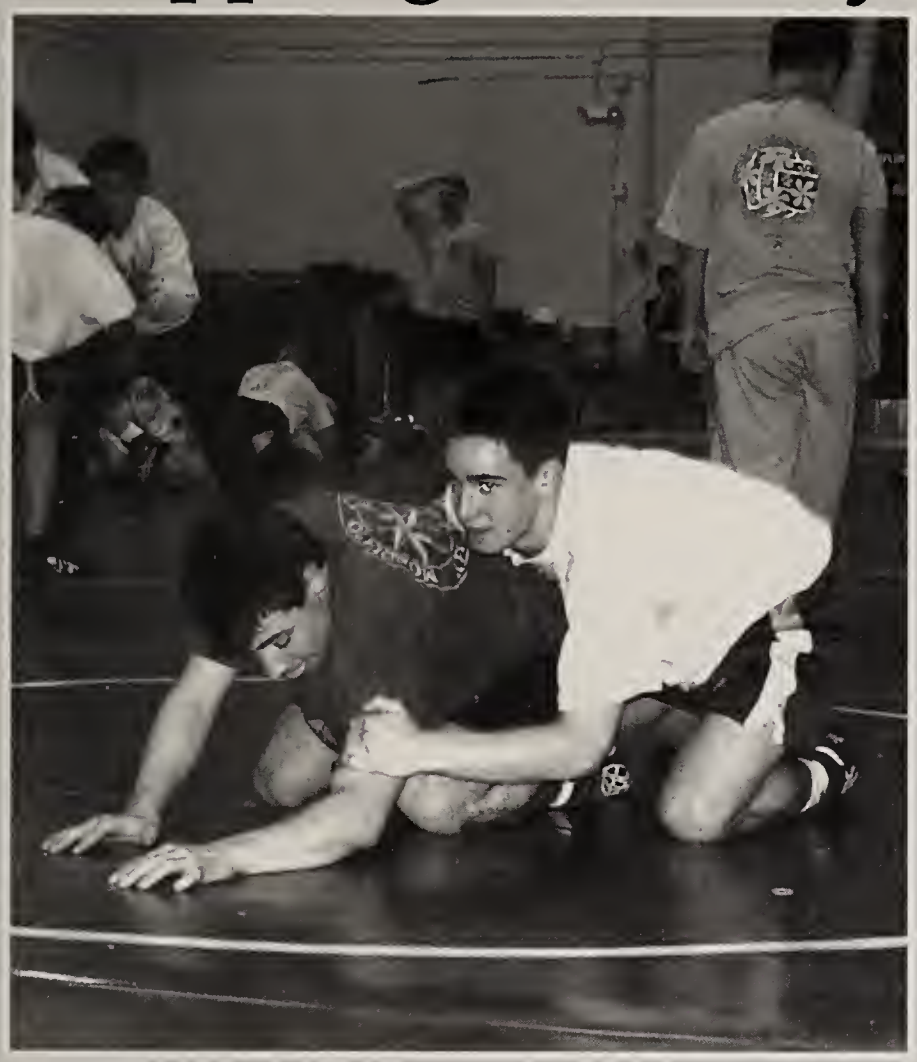
Grappling to Victory



FREEZE FRAME. Sophomore Peter Orth assumes control of fellow sophomore Nathan Landy, but Nathan has other ideas as he pauses to collect himself to shake off Peter.

Starting the season with eleven seniors in the line-up, the 'Cats persevered through many injuries to perform better than anyone expected. The underclassmen that filled a varsity singlet stepped up to the challenge and wrestled just as well as the injured grapplers. Weston placed 3rd at the Sectional tournament, with eleven state qualifiers. Matt Huttner, Steve Wai, Nick Botchan, Clay Chan, Kris Cook, and Lee Wilson all came out strong with a place at the Sectional Tournament. Despite losing captain Austin Allain, Mike Bruneau, and Brad Davenport moved on to impressive accomplishments the rest of the season. Other senior wrestlers included John Viola, tri-captains Doug Haber, Chris Wai, and Andy Obusek, Eric Chan, Chris Stratton, Jon Selame, and Dan McShane.

Theater Company

Act Like You Mean It

Carl Angiolillo, 2000
Carl fit right into the Theater Company after moving to Weston in 1998. He starred as Scrooge in T.C.'s 1999 production of "A Christmas Carol."

Michael Archambault, 2000
A four year member of T.C., Mike has been a great addition to the club. He has always brought a great sense of humor to the stage.

Nathaniel Boyle, 2000
Nat's creative intelligence has been a great asset to the Theater Company. He acted in many plays and starred as two characters in "A Christmas Carol."

Joelle Lurie, 2000
Co-President of the Theater Company, Joelle has been a part of every T.C. production, both on and back stage, since her freshman year at WHS.

Eli Mather, 2000
Eli, co-president of the Theater Company, did a fine job in his four years with the club. He helped the T.C. to reach the state finals three years in a row.

Uniting Together

In the late 1990s, students of WHS began to identify with their heritage. This led to the creation of new groups such as the Greek, Italian, and Irish student unions as well as the Scottish-Irish Co-op.

The Sophomore Studs

The Chess Club and the Debate Club are made up of unique individuals mainly from the class of 2002.

The Chess and Debate clubs are among the newest activities at Weston High School. Members of these clubs prove that an extracurricular doesn't have to revolve around excercising the body, it can be centered around excercising the brain.

Both of these groups were started by members of the class of 2002, the Chess Club in the 1998-1999 school year, and the Debate Team in the 1999-2000 school year. The Debate Team had a very succesful debut, performing strongly in a series of debates with other teams from around the area. Both clubs will be back next year to continue having fun using their minds to take down their opponents.

Members of these groups have committed themselves to making sure the students of WHS feel comfortable with each other.

Making a Difference

I'LL BE THERE FOR YOU. Colin Woodworth and Cara Zimmerman are prime examples of great friends.

THE FRIEND YOU NEED. Missy Kahan is always there to lend a helping hand to those in need of assistence.

CAN'T WE ALL JUST GET ALONG? Anna Shum and Kristi Bruno have no problems keeping their friendship strong.

HALF-TIME. The cheerleaders worked very hard to develop a half-time show that would have the audience begging for more.

GIVE ME A W! Keri Liu, Theresa Reynolds-Lupo, and Shaunteé Carter support a fellow cheerleader in this new arrangement.

QUEENS OF THE RINK. Lauren Jackson and Abby Davidson have been figure skating since they were little girls.

TIME OUT. The cheerleaders take a rest to plan their next stunning moves.

Entertainment Factor

Over the past few years, the cheerleaders have not had a tremendous turn out. The 1999-2000 season more than made up for that.

The girls in the cheerleading club have added a new flavor to the halftimes and time-outs of Weston's athletic competitions. They have motivated the audience to cheer their hearts out for the Wildcats. Their sense of school spirit is greatly appreciated by all.

This year the figure skating club was made up of all seniors, with the exception of one brave freshman. Future outlooks for this club are in her hands.

Fun Filled Seniors

GreatTimes

Members of the class of 2000 have worked tremendously hard through out their four years at WHS. However, even during the busiest of times, the seniors have always found time to have fun and show their school spirit.

We're Out!

The ending to another chapter in our lives has been written. In it, we have been blessed to make wonderful lifelong friends who will always have places in our hearts. Good luck and congratulations to all the seniors.

Best Ever

From the close friend-ships to the success and height of the bonfire, the class of 2000 has consistently outdone all its predecessors.

seniors seniors seniors

What will you miss most about WHS?

Peri West

I will miss the teachers who have become my friends and taught me so much over the past four years. Playing sports in college will be different from playing at Weston, and I will miss the family atmosphere that my teams have created for me. I will especially miss my high school friends.

Nick Powley

I will miss a lot of things about WHS. I have enjoyed working with my classmates to pull off big projects like the prom and the bonfire. I have gotten to know many new people through working on these events.

What's your best high school memory?

Chris Reese

On of my favorite times in Hhigh school was building the bonfire and watching it go up in smoke. I'm going to miss being a part of that annual tradition.

Katharine Harrison

One of the my best memories of the high school is of sitting in class on snowy days and waiting to get into snowball fights after school with my friends. Nobody is is a rush on those days and it was very relaxing.

juniors

What do you look foward to about senior year?

Torrey Kulow

I am looking forward to SENIOR PRIVELAGES like being able to come in late and leave early from school. I am alo excited for snowdays that I won't have to make up.

Ashley Becker

I am looking forward to a memorable senior year filled with fun times and bonding with my friends. I am excited for my grade to be the leaders and role models of the school. Senior privileges have also been something I have been looking forward to for 3 years.

What is the secret of junior year?

Meghan Wilson

There really is no secret to junior year. You just need to work really hard to get good grades. You'll go nuts if you don't go out and have fun outside of school every chance you get.

Caroline Pierson

The secret is learning how to budget your time so that you don't become overwhelmed with work and other activities. Also, realizing that some things aren't imperative helps you to keep you sanity.

In The Clear

Three years down . . . . one to go! Although we've already met challenges at Weston High School, there hasn't been anything we couldn't handle just yet. No matter what, we can't wait for senior year to come.

Working Hard

Studying hard has been a main goal for this year. Thanks to the help of our peers and teachers, we have survived without too much trouble.

Sophomore Slump

This year sure showed us that we should have appreciated freshman year a little more. Unfortunately, now we have to study to get good grades. Just let us at the PSATs and we'll show you who's boss.

Looking Ahead

As sophomores, we have has a year as freshmen to adjust to Weston high School. With a second year under our belts, we are looking ahead to being upperclassmen so we have the right to make fun of the freshmen.

sophomores sophomores sophomores

How did you handle the sophomore slump?

Hannah Munger

Sophomore year wasn't academically challenging for me, so I didn't fall into too bad of a slump. Procrastination seemed to be a common problem among sophomores, but there was less work over all.

Sarah Kupper

Sophomore slump was definately a problem this year, as everyone had told me. Keeping busy and trying not to become too lazy with the lessened work load was a big help.

What do you look forward to about jr. year?

Jack Ribakoff

I am really looking forward to playing more sports and not being one of the younger guys on the teams. In general, I think junior year is going to be really fun. SInce a lot of people will be getting thier licences, there will be more freedom and more opportunities to have a good time.

Meghan McCarthy

Sophomore year was a ton of fun! Not only did we as a class become closer, we also had much more time to do fun things. I think we are all looking forward to junior year not only for the increase in work which we will be overjoyed to do . . . rrrright, but for the ultimate freedom that will come to most of us next year, OUR LICENSES!

freshmen freshmen freshmen

What is your favorite thing about not being in the middle school?

Alex Racioppi

My favorite thing about not being in the middle school is not having to be in school with all the sixth and seventh graders. When you are around the younger kids you get treated like one of them, so being with the older kids is much better.

Maiah Johnson

My favorite thing about WHS is tthe sense of freedom. For example, there is a lot more independence in the high school than in the middle school. Also, people really don't care what you act like or how you dress, and that's totally stellar!

How long can you wait to be a senior?

Liz Kalemos

I'm not in any rush yet, it's only my first year of high school. I have to admit though, I'm really looking forward to the feedom and responsibility it takes to be a senior.

Lauren Malone

The Big Adjustment

Apparently, the high school life is a little different from the middle school. We actually have some free periods here and we don't need a pass to walk down the hallway. What a thrill! WHS rules!

Just Beginning

With one year under their belts, members of the class of 2004 have proved that they can handle anything . . . including the upperclassmen.

The Style of 2000

Make your own CD's . . . . . .

Disc Mans and mini discs were staples to make it through the day for many students.

Activities were all the rage . . .

The majority of WHS students spent countless afternoons contributing to their activity of choice.

Genevieve Abraham and Derek Taff, Wildcat Tracks co-editors

The replacement lipstick . . . . .

Basic 'balm and scented sticks are a must for Weston students. It is commonly reffered to as "lip stuff."

Twins? . . no, just Weston students.

Abercrombie and Fitch dominates the clothing style at Weston High School.

Aaron Berkey and Leif Von DerHeide

P-Coats
Keeping warm in Weston was done in style this year. P-Coats were seen on all kinds of Weston including Chris Wentworth, and Sharon Warren.

Phat Rides
Weston's favorite cars this year have been the big 'n boxy SUV, the sweet spots car, and the cool caddie. Caroline Curtis favors the SUV.

MMM....Bald Boys
Weston girls swooned at the sights of shaved heads with nearly half of Weston guys sporting the clean-as- a cue-ball look.

When each year's seniors graduate, they move on to more expansive horizons. At the same time, they must leave behind very important people who have been there every step of the way. Families watch their children dren grow into adulthood during their time at WHS, knowing that at the end of the road every one will have to say good-bye.

2000 WAYS TO ADD YOUR LOVE

PUPPETEERS. This group of Weston elementary schoolers shows off their new creations.

MOUNTAINEERS. Hayward Follansbee, Keltar Mui, Chris Purvis, Joff Diffenbach, Solui Perry, and Max Riffin prepare for a hike in the woods.

MS. DESAULNIERS. Katie Nicholson, Bobby Desaulniers, Elizabeth Arkema, and Xandra Benjamin.

Although this is a bittersweet time for students and families alike, graduation brings confidence that each matured individual will move on to bigger and better things. Good luck to all graduating seniors.

Carla,

As you move forward through your life journey, the flash from birth to high school graduation has elapsed. During this formative period you have developed, matured and blossomed into a beautiful and intelligent young women with definitive ideas, a strong character, and high values.

We shall miss your reassuring smile and quick wit, your relentless pursuit of perfection, your unwavering determination and affection, and of course the "speaking of your mind". We love you very much and we remain committed to being a part of your future.

We are proud to be your parents, friend, and family!

Dad & Mom, Fran & Alex

PS. Please be prepared, mom and I shall be visiting you at school often.

Congratulations Kyle!

We want you to know how proud we are of you, how happy we are for you, how much pleasure you have given us in the past 18 years, and how very much we will always love you.

Dear Rob,
You're a great little bro and a great best friend!

Love, Emily (the fire dog)

Dear Robert, Most of my friends are the oldest kids in their family. At times I feel bad for them because they don't have a big brother like you. You have helped me with school work even when I didn't ask for it. You drove me to school every day, and always had time to take me were I wanted to go, even if you were busy. As you graduate from high school in May, and meet a lot of people in the 'real world', I am sure you will treat them with kindness and show that you care, the way you treated me, the big brother way.
Thank you Robert,
Love, your little brother, Eric.

We have watched you grow up from a very tiny baby to where you are today. You have transcended the over bearing love and imperfections of those that surround you and have become someone truly remarkable. Although not yet complete, you surely have those intangible gifts that define greatness. Your sense of humor is a constant source of brightness in our day. The lightness in your heart and the sparkle in your eye with which you approach the challenges in life fills us with joy and confidence knowing that regardless of where you go and what you do you will be happy and content.

for as long as I can remember, you have been my hero! You've brought joy to every holiday, and you have supported me through everything I have ever done. You guided me in the right direction when I was unsure which way to go. Whether it was a pillow fight or a water fight, you'd always stick up for me. I'm unbelievably grateful, because I know this wasn't always easy. So my big bro, my hero - on your journey that awaits you, I wish you luck and the world's happiness. I will love you always Spike Boy! And forever you will remain one of the best brothers in the universe. So again thank you for everything, and I will love you always and forever!

Your one and only Elizabee

Thank you for letting me watch you grow. From toddler to teenager I have seen your pains and prides, your failures, successes and triumphs each one met without fear or doubt. I admire you for all you have done and envy you for the way you go about it. The world is what you make of it, kid. Be sure you stay as happy as you can. you're moving on to the next stage in your life. I wish you the best of luck and hope for a bright future for you, wherever it may be. Dear Lindsay,

When you were 5, without any lessons, you skied in the NASTAR ski race and placed 5th in the state.

At 9 you entered 3 categories in the New England Flower Show and won 3 First Place Blue Ribbons from the Mass. Horticultural Society. Thank you, Sue.

At 11 you took an art course at the Decordova Museum. They chose you to demonstrate your art live at their Open House.

Then you studied the flute. My favorite Mother's Day present was the flute solo from "West Side Story." You played so sweetly just for me. Thank you for that memory.

In high school you joined the Red Tide Swim Team and won a Varsity letter as a Freshman.

Your art work is always in the annual Weston Art Show. You wolf is truly a gift to all who see it. AWE-SOME!!

Last year at the Awards Assembly you won so many, you even surprised yourself. Thank you, Mrs. Marsh.

Now you are member of the National Ski Patrol (how hard you worked for that), a lifeguard and a swim instructor.

Lindsay, do you know how special you are? Your natural talents and abilities bring success to everything you touch. Choose wisely, for the world is your oyster.

Good luck as you leave home. And when you look back, remember how proud we are of you and how very much we love you. Mom and Dad

Dear My Fellow Classmates,

It is unbelievable that the time for us to say our good-byes and go our separate ways is already here. Only we can appreciate the feelings of sadness at this moment in our lives.

We met when we were three feet tall, we shared in the loss of our first teeth, in the horrors of dissecting a worm, we giggled through our fourth grade Matilda play, and marveled at our nation's capital in eighth grade- we have been together for twelve years and are bonded together by the myriad of experiences we've shared.

As one, we have nurtured and supported each other through the playful years of childhood, the turbulence of adolescence, and the pressures of young adulthood. We have shaped each other into the hard working people we are today. Each of you has carved an indelible mark in my heart. I am eternally grateful for all we have experienced together and the volumes I have learned from each of you. The time and memories you've given me has made you, a part of me. I can never forget any of you. As I start my journey beyond, I know I'll take you with me, with tears, joy, and pride.

This is the first year of the millennium, therefore I refuse to say good-bye, instead I'd like to say "see you soon friends." But in the mean time, my dear class, the Class of 2000, I sincerely wish you a healthy, happy, and joyous life filled with good luck and fortune.

I'll always be interested to hear from you. In all the years to come, let me have the privilege to share with you your life, as we did in our childhood. I have a permanent address where you can always reach me: PO Box 624, Weston, MA. 02493. Please drop me a line when you have a moment.

Dear Teachers & School Staff Members of Weston,

In the fall of 1993 when I returned back to school after a year's absence from Weston, Dr. Ronald Harris followed every step of mine to ensure a comfortable fit in my new sixth grade classes. After school one day that winter, my parents forgot to pick me up after school and I waited until 6:00 at night. Luckily Mr. Archambault, the school custodian, accompanied me till my father's arrival. He bought me chips and juice from the vending machines, we talked for nearly three hours that evening. This was six years ago, and we still talk at least once a week when I visit the Middle School. I cannot imagine ever finding another group of people who are able to work so well and care so much about "the kids."

Among teachers, there are those who taught us how, and others who taught us to think.

Ms. McCartney, thank you for helping me make my first serious step in writing, but more meaningfully, for including me in your "Big Sister Program." Mr. Kelley, you are the only person that can get the classes' attention on a gloomy day, only you can put a smile on my face first thing in the morning. Mr. Minigan, you've taught us to be ourselves when writing, and brilliantly carved Shakespeare in everyone of our minds. Mrs. Prindle, words cannot express how much I adore you. Mr. Mathers, your teaching methods had brought my view of Weston schools to another level, I will forever appreciate the personal attention you have given to me.

Unfortunately after having been taught by all of you, I am at a loss with words to describe my feelings at this time. Words aren't strong enough to let you know how very much I'll be missing you and your guidance.

Mr. Taggart, you taught me in 6^{th}, 9^{th}, and 10^{th} grade. You must know you are liked and admired by all of us, you have enlightened us in more than history. Ms. Kresl Moffat, I have one word to describe you, special. I must say you are one of the most unique human beings I have gotten the chance to know, your frequent seemingly simple comments always had me thinking, interpreting the meanings beyond words. Ms. Kim, I wish I had met you sooner, our first class was a life lesson for me. Talking to you has taught me things I could never learn in a text or lecture. Mr. Goldberg, the rookie this year, but still the best. It is rare to find such a good friend in a counselor. Mr. Beevers, I hit a jackpot, I was given the chance of knowing you and working with you. Everyone wants you to be their best friend, there's no word to describe you.

I thank all my teachers from kindergarten through twelfth grade for going the extra mile. Our graduation day is ours because of the countless gifts each of you have bestowed upon us. I would not be the person I am today without the guidance and knowledge you have instilled in me.

May you always continue to be the astounding inspiration you are today.

Nadia

You are as unique as the name you chose for yourself!

X-mity! You really made it! Stay strong and you'll go far! The f.s. can't get you now! Remember... the important things in life are those that make you the happiest. Enjoy the fun times that lie ahead! I'll always be here for you. Love, Sar

Nat,
I am sure it often seemed the opposite, but I have always looked up to you and greatly admired your opinions and ideas. You have always been the person for whom I wanted to do not just a good job, but a great one. When I perform onstage, the night that you are in the audience is always the most important for me.
When I know that you are going to be at a game of mine, that game becomes more important to me than any other. I have always looked up to you, not only as an older brother, but also as an artist, musician, writer, actor, and a unique person with brilliant ideas. Throughout my life, you have been a great inspiration and motivation to me. I know that you will forever hold this position in my heart.
Rock on brother!! I love you.

- Alexandra

Jase,
I did not complain when I fast became freckled,
And made not a sound while you casually speckled.
I lay very still while I silently dozed.
To awake with a mass of toys up to my nose.
And yet you were three when you colored away,
And I became Raggedy Anne for a day.
And you were but six, when you piled the toys,
And I lay there, naive, without making a noise.

And our father just laughed,
While our mom thought it cute,
And I just went along,
Without giving a hoot,
For you are my big brother,
And what are they for,
But teasing and fighting and causing discord.

I threw fits when you mocked me and pulled at your hair,
In attempt to rebuke you but you couldn't care.
You were twice my size with fourteen times the muscle,
And could scoop me right up in the midst of a scuffle.
I laughed as you tossed me right over your shoulder,
And not a thing changed as we swiftly grew older.
We'll fight and we'll tease and we'll laugh and we'll badger,
And nothing will alter for you are my brother.

And our father will laugh,
While our mom thinks it cute,
And I'll just go along,
Without giving a hoot.
For you are my big brother,
And what are they for,
But to tease and to fight, to love and adore.
I'll miss you.
Laura

Jason, we are proud of you. It's time for you to leave, and we know you will do it with confidence and ease. We are grateful for the young man you have become, your sense of humor and your hearty laugh, your integrity, your assertiveness, your tenderness, and your enthusiasm. Our memories of you at home will be our treasure.
We love you very much.

KATIE,

We love and admire
your strength of character,
your ability to learn and grow, your incredible curiosity, and your sensitivity to others.

Thanks for keeping us young!

Hola! Como estas?
Lauren-
Even magnificent constructions of words could not convey my feelings about who you are and who you have been to me. But, to give you some idea, you are the only person I would eat popsicles for in the middle of the night when my teeth were frozen. You are the only person who lets me slide even when you don't know what the hell I am talking about. And you are the only person who has been my very best friend every day of my life. Keep that frown upside down. If you ever need my help, just remember -- BAP with a big stick ... I'll be there.

Dear Genevieve,

To an ingenious, sage, and headstrong sister, I'll say this many times, but I'll miss you. Mostly we fought a lot, but the other times were fun times. Beaches, shopping, restaurants, and more. We had fun together. I wish you good luck in college, and hope you pick the right one for yourself.

I also hope you make the right choice and make lots of new friends. We all will miss you, even Gremlin, Maddy, and Reggie. But I will miss you too. And I admire you for your perseverance.
